

Coco Plum Association, Inc.
Amended and Restated Community Standards

Approved on December 1, 2021 by the Board of Directors of Coco Plum

The purpose of this document is to provide standards for Coco Plum residents to follow with regard to items listed below, so that the unique “cottage” look of the community can be maintained. Such standards are set by the Coco Plum Architectural Review Committee (“ARC”) and approved by the Board of Directors of the Coco Plum Association, Inc. (“Association”), and are subject to change.

Attached, under the title of “Coco Plum Architectural and Aesthetic Control,” are the procedures for obtaining approval for any changes residents may request to their homes or landscaping, along with answers to frequently asked questions.

House Painting

All homes must be repainted at least every 10 years, or sooner if deemed necessary by the ARC and the Association, in colors approved for Coco Plum by the Association. Those colors are the following or their equivalents:

House Paint

Flags and Flag Poles

No flags and/or flag poles shall be affixed to any tree.

Enforcement Policy

Pursuant to Article XII of the Amended and Restated Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions and Easements of Coco Plum (“Declaration”), the Board of Directors may impose a fine or fines upon an owner for failure to comply with any covenant, restriction, rule, or regulation of the Association. The Association shall observe all requirements in Section 720.305, Florida Statutes with respect to the levying of the fine(s). In addition, in the event a homeowner fails to maintain his lot and residence as required by Section 9.3 of the Declaration after at least 14 days’ notice from the Association and the homeowner’s failure to comply, the Association shall have the right to collect from the owner the full cost of the work required to correct the non-compliance. Such cost will be included in the owner’s account after which time a contract will be let for the completion of the work. Failure to pay a fine of $1,000.00 or failure to reimburse the Association for the cost of maintaining the lot and residence shall result in a lien being filed against the homeowner’s home and further collection efforts may be initiated in accordance with Florida Statutes
